

Professor Hassan
Nooman Sallam
MB, ChB, DGO, MD (Alex),
FRCOG (England), PhD
(London)

- Founding member of the IVF unit at King's College Hospital, London, England (1981-1983)

and St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital, Columbia University, New York (1984), and founder of the Alexandria Fertility and IVF Center (1985)

- Examiner to the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists of England in London since 1998
- Recipient of the Royal College Historical Lecture in 2012
- Served/serves on the Editorial Board of top international journals including "Human Reproduction" and "RBM online"
- Published more than 100 papers in national and international refereed journals in 3 languages as well as 4 books
- Lectured by invitation in more than 130 conferences, seminars and symposia in 37 countries (including UK, USA, France, Germany, Japan, Canada, India, Italy, Spain, Greece, China, etc...), in addition to Egypt
- Professor and former chairman of obstetrics and gynaecology and vice-dean, Alexandria University Faculty of Medicine
- Founding chairman of the Mediterranean Society for Reproductive Medicine (2002-2006)
- Co-author of "Infertility and Assisted Reproduction", the reference textbook published in 2008 by Cambridge University Press.
- Chairman of the Egyptian Representative Committee of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists
- Founding director, Alexandria Regional Center for Women's Health and Development (formerly the Suzanne Mubarak Center)
- One of the 6 co-founders of the Middle East Fertility Society in 1994